

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY

PROGRAM

NOVEMBER 18, 19 AND 20, 1966

Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

President: Walter C. Reckless
Department of Sociology
Ohio State University
Columbus, Ohio

Executive Secretary: Charles L. Newman
Center for Police and Corrections
The Pennsylvania State University
University Park, Pennsylvania

Program Chair: Stephen Schafer
Department of Sociology - Anthropology
Northeastern University
Boston, Massachusetts

Local Arrangements: Marvin E. Wolfgang
Department of Sociology
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Tecumseh room
Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

- 3:00 to 4:00 pm ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CRIMINOLOGY
Presiding Walter C. Reckless, President
- 4:00 to 6:30 pm RETHINKING THE PROBLEM OF PERSISTENT OFFENDERS

THE CLINTON PROJECT

- Introduction Chairman, Peter Preiser, Executive Director, Governor Rockefeller's
Special Committee on Criminal Offenders, Albany, New York
"Situation of the Program to the Administration of Justice"

PANEL

- Bruno M. Cormier, McGill University, Montreal
"Classification of Persistent Offenders for Purposes of Treatment and Research"
- Miriam Kennedy, McGill University
"Natural History of Persistent Criminality"
- Ludvig Fink, Director, Clinton Prison Diagnostic and Treatment
Center
"Description of the Clinton Project"
- W. B. Darby
"Observations on the First Group of Offenders"
- B. M. Cormier and F. J. Williams
"Study of the Psychopathology of the Deprivation of Liberty"
- B. M. Cormier
"The Persistent Offender and his Family"
- M. Kennedy
"Criminal Partnership"
- E. G. Poser, McGill University
"Psychological Research: Operational and Experimental Aspects"
- John Conrad President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice
Discussant
- General Discussion and questions from the floor
- Summary and Conclusion – Chair, Peter Preiser

Tecumsah Room
Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

9:30 – 12:00 pm RETHINKING ABORTION LEGISLATION

Presiding: Stephen Schafer, Department of Sociology-Anthropology
Northeastern University, Boston, Massachusetts

Papers: Robert E. Hall, Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center
New York
“Medico-Legal Rethinking”

David Greenfield, O.S.B., The Catholic University of America
“Rethinking Abortion Legislation: Law and Morals”

Elmer Johnson, Assistant Director of Center and Professor of Sociology, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois
“Rethinking the Abortion Problem: a Sociological Critique”

Georg E. Sturop, Denmark
“Abortion in Denmark”

12:15 – 2:00 pm ANNUAL AWARD LUNCHEON – Academy Room, Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

Presiding: Walter C. Reckless, President, American Society of Criminology

Presentation of Edwin Sutherland Award
Awards: August Vollmer Award
Herbert Bloch Award

Presentations by: Donal E. J. MacNamara, City University of New York
Chairman of Awards Committee

Response by Awards Recipients

2:30 – 5:00 pm RETHINKING INVASION OF PRIVACY

Presiding: Donal E. J. MacNamara, City University of New York, State University of New York

Papers: James McDonnell, Deputy Chief Inspector, New York City Police Department (Ret): Past President, Police Honor Legion “Police Need for Write-tapping and Eavesdropping in the Investigation and Prevention of Crime”

James H. Hewitt, Chairman, Department of Police Science, State University of New York; Secretary-Treasurer of International Association of Police Professors
“A Moderate Approach: Administrative and Legal Control to Permit Use and Prevent Abuse”

Edward Sagarin, Assistant Professor of Sociology, Baruch
School, City College, City University of New York
“Victim-Induced Privacy Invasion”

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19

(continued)

Albert Hess, National Council on Crime and Delinquency, and Fre La Poole, University of Amsterdam
“The Use of Arrest Records”

Donal E. J. MacNamara
“The National Personal Data Bank: Orwellian Nightmare”

6:00 – 8:00 pm Reception and Cocktail Party
Faculty Club, University of Pennsylvania
36th Street and Walnut
(Admission by ticket only, included in full registration.
Additional tickets available at registration desk)

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Tecumseh Room
Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

10:00 – 12:30 pm RETHINKING JUVENILE COURT PHILOSOPHY

Presiding: Albert K. Cohen, University of Connecticut

Papers: John S. X. Irving, National Association of Juvenile Court Judges “Perspectives from the Juvenile Court” (tentative)

Ralph Susman, President’s Commission on Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Crimes; and Lenore Kupperstein, United States Children’s Bureau
“An Overview of Juvenile Court Procedures and Program”

Mourad Paulson, Columbia University School of Law, New York
“Legal Aspects of Juvenile Court Philosophy” (tentative)