

United States in the area of criminal justice or who serve as legislative advisers.

For further details, see the Bulletin of the Graduate Division of the School of Law of New York University, or write to:

The Director
Criminal Law Education and Research Center
New York University School of Law
Washington Square
New York, N.Y. 10003

• • • •

Annual Meeting of the American Society of Criminology

The annual meeting of the American Society of Criminology will be held on October 31, November 1 and 2, 1969, at The Neil House, Columbus, Ohio. Ohio State University will host the meeting, and Dr. Simon Dinitz, Department of Sociology, Ohio State University, is chairman of the local arrangement committee. A reservation form for the meeting is enclosed in this issue of CRIMINOLOGICA, and members and interested parties are urged to make reservations early so as to facilitate completion of arrangements for the conference. Your cooperation and attendance is respectfully urged.

The tentative program, subject to revision, is as follows:

- I. Power and Negotiated Justice (panel discussion)
- II. The Ex-Convict in Society (panel discussion)
- III. Education in Criminology (panel discussion)
- IV. Student Papers (papers)
- V. Social Policy and the Administration of Justice (panel discussion)
- VI. Great Figures in American Criminology (luncheon presentation)

• • • •

Notices of changes of address should be sent to the Executive Office of the American Society of Criminology, Department of Sociology, Washington, D.C. 20017. NO CHANGE WILL BE MADE WITHOUT THE APPROPRIATE ZIP CODE.