PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

The major purpose of each year's Annual Meeting is to provide a forum for the presentation of the most recent advances in theory and research in Criminology. Certainly many of the sessions deserve to be highlighted given this purpose. The program committee has worked hard to facilitate this goal and to make this meeting truly reflective of this year's theme: The Causes and Consequences of Crime: Multidisciplinary Contributions. Certain major events are listed here to remind attendees of their time and place.
