

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

1988 ANNUAL MEETING

November 9 - November 12, 1988 -- Marriott Hotel

"State and Crime"

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8

6:00 ASC Executive Board Meeting (MIDWAY, 10TH FLOOR)

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9

9:00-7:00 Registration (LEVEL SEVEN)
9:00 ASC Finance Committee Meeting (MIDWAY, 10TH FLOOR)
9:45-11:15 Meeting Of Directors Of Criminal Justice Research Centers (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
1:00-5:00 Professional Employment Service (SCOTTSDALE)
2:00-5:00 Book Exhibit (SALONS A & D)

11:30-1:00 PANEL SESSIONS

1. Alternative and Traditional Approaches to Punishment (INDIANA)
2. Co-Production of Public Safety: Some Constraints on Police and Citizen Roles in Problem-Oriented Policing (IOWA)
3. Mental Health Diagnosis as Punishment (MICHIGAN)
4. Women as Victims and Offenders in Homicide (MICHIGAN STATE)
5. Teaching Criminology and Criminal Justice (NORTHWESTERN)
6. WORKSHOP: Defense Alternatives for Battered Women Who Kill Their Abusers: All Socio-Legal Considerations (GREAT AMERICA II)
7. Delinquency in Non-Western Cultures (OHIO STATE)
8. Spatial, Geographic Dimensions of Crime (PURDUE)
9. New Social Movements and Criminalization Demands (WISCONSIN)

1:15-2:45 PANEL SESSIONS

10. SOLO SESSION: Why Criminologists Cannot Do Social Research Without Incorporating History (SALON B)
11. SOLO SESSION: International Law, Citizen Resistance, and Crimes by the State the Defense Speaks (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
12. White Man's Law and Non-White People (INDIANA)
13. Controlling White Collar Crime (IOWA)
14. Issues in Parole/Probation Supervision (MICHIGAN)
15. Biochemical Analysis of Violent Behavior (MICHIGAN STATE)
16. Social Cognition and Social Control: Moral Development, Empathy, and Social Bonds (NORTHWESTERN)
17. Electronically Monitored Home Detention as an Intermediate Sanction (OHIO STATE)
18. Intervention Strategies and Reintegration: Lessons and Prospects for Delinquency Programming (PURDUE)
19. Gender and Delinquency (WISCONSIN)
20. Women Caught in the Drug/Alcohol Abuse World (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
21. DEBATE SESSION: Should Victims Have Constitutionally Protected Rights? (GREAT AMERICA II)

Welcome: William J. Chambliss, President
American Society of Criminology

August Vollmer Award: Lee Brown
Chief of Police
Houston Police Department

4:45-6:00 PANEL SESSIONS

- 22. The Lock Up: The Once and Future Role of Detention (MICHIGAN)
- 23. Firearms Ownership and Violent Crime (INDIANA)
- 24. Police Enforcement Issues: Special Clientele (IOWA)
- 25. Gender Bias and Juvenile Justice Processing (GREAT AMERICA II)
- 26. Methodological Issues in Assessing Drug Abuse Problems and Response Strategies (MICHIGAN STATE)
- 27. Comparative Studies in Prosecutorial Decisionmaking (NORTHWESTERN)
- 28. Governmental Crime by Omission (OHIO STATE)
- 29. Issues in the Study of Intimate Violence and Victimization (PURDUE)
- 30. DEBATE: Antitrust Policy in the Reagan Era: Boon or Boondoggle? (LINCOLNSHIRE II)

6:00-7:00 COCKTAIL HOUR - CASH BAR (SALON E)
Sponsored by Division on Women and Crime of ASC

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10

- 7:30-6:30 Registration (LEVEL SEVEN)
- 8:30-5:00 Book Exhibit (SALONS A & D)
- 8:30-5:00 Professional Employment Service (SCOTTSDALE)

8:00-9:30 PANEL SESSIONS

- 31. Evaluating the Effectiveness of Prison Education and Training Programs (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
- 32. Rape Between Intimates (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
- 33. Criminal Gangs Among Bikers, Blacks, and Prisoners (GREAT AMERICA I)
- 34. Electronic Monitoring: Trends and Issues (GREAT AMERICA II)
- 35. Comparative Perspectives on Crime and Justice Issues (ILLINOIS)
- 36. The Criminal Justice System and Spouse Abuser Counseling (INDIANA)
- 37. Alcohol as Precipitator of Violent Offending and Victimization (IOWA)
- 38. The National Youth Survey: Recent Developments and Analyses (MICHIGAN)
- 39. Research and Issues in Police Personnel Management (MICHIGAN STATE)
- 40. Ecological Factors and Crime Rates (MINNESOTA)
- 41A. Issues Related to Drunk Driving Offenses (NORTHWESTERN)
- 41B. Terrorism and Violence (OHIO STATE)
- 41C. ROUNDTABLE: Human Justice Collective (PURDUE)

9:30 Coffee Break (SALONS A & D)
Sponsored by Anderson Publishing Company

9:45-11:15 Division on Women and Crime Business Meeting (MIDWAY, 10TH FLOOR)

9:45-11:15 PANEL SESSIONS

42. SOLO: Criminology in Japan (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
43. Political Economy of Economic Crime (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
44. Discriminatory Justice; Image and Reality (GREAT AMERICA II)
45. White Collar and Corporate Crimes in the Transnational Corporate Context (GREAT AMERICA I)
46. Childhood Victimization and the Development of Deviant Behavior (IOWA)
47. Progress in the Consortium of Studies on the Causes of Crime (INDIANA)
48. International Perspectives on Juvenile Justice (MICHIGAN)
49. The Creation of Knowledge About Drugs and Violent Crime (MICHIGAN STATE)
50. Issues in Latin American Criminology (NORTHWESTERN)
51. Abolition of the Death Penalty: Past, Present and Future (SALON B)
52. Violence Between Intimates: Theoretical Issues (OHIO STATE)
53. Working at Criminal Justice: Attitudes and Experiences of Criminal Justice Personnel (ILLINOIS)
54. DEBATE: In Search of the Greater Evil: Competing Emphases in the Definition of Crime and Their Importance for Criminological Research and Theory (SALON E)
55. Prison and the Press (PURDUE)
56. Crime and the State of Nevada (MINNESOTA)
57. ROUNDTABLE: Monitoring and Evaluating Sentence Reform (SALON I)
58. ROUNDTABLE: Trends and Prospects in Community Policing (SALON I)
59. Maritime Crime and Its Prevention (WISCONSIN)
60. ROUNDTABLE: Generations of Alternatives to Incarceration (SALON I)
61. ROUNDTABLE: Defending Radicals and Revolutionaries Before the Court (SALON I)
- 62A. ROUNDTABLE: Privatization in the Criminal Justice System: The Role of Research in Political Decision-Making (SALON I)
- 62B. WORKSHOP: The National Science Foundation Funding Environment for Research in Criminology and Socio-Legal Studies (SALON C)

11:30-1:00 CRIMINOLOGY Editorial Board Luncheon (MIDWAY, 10TH FLOOR)

11:30-1:00 PANEL SESSIONS

63. SOLO: Criminology in Poland (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
64. The Political Economy of Crime and Crime Control in the Progressive Era (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
65. Minorities and Correctional Conflicts (GREAT AMERICA I)
66. Explaining White Collar Crime and Corporate Crime (INDIANA)
67. The Penal Process: Coping With Fiscal Crisis (GREAT AMERICA II)
68. Using Natural Science Methods to Aid in Making Criminal Justice Decisions (IOWA)
69. Prosecution of Intimate Violence (MICHIGAN)
70. Do Penal Sanctions Deter Crime? Perspectives From the General Public, Prisoners, and Students (MICHIGAN STATE)
71. Application of Expert Systems to Criminal Justice Problems (MINNESOTA)
72. Historical Perspectives on Juvenile Justice (NORTHWESTERN)
73. Correctional Drug Treatment: A National Program (OHIO STATE)
74. Heterogeneity Among Drinking Drivers: Implications for Intervention and Enforcement (PURDUE)
75. DEBATE: Should Positivism Rule Criminology? (SALON E)
76. Crime and Criminal Justice in Smaller Nations (WISCONSIN)
77. Sexually Abusive Fathers (LOS ANGELES)
- 78A. Case Weights and Workload Standard (MIAMI)
- 78B. Comparative Criminology: Politics and Justice (SALON B)

12:00 ASC Inter-Organizations Committee Meeting (ILLINOIS)

1:00-2:30 ASC Publications Committee Meeting (INDIANA)

1:30-2:30 ASC Awards Committee Meeting (SALON C)

1:15-2:45 PLENARY SESSION (SALON E)

Keynote Speaker: Jacqueline Sharkey, University of Arizona
"The Contra-Drug Trade Off"

3:00-4:30 PANEL SESSIONS

79. WORKSHOP: The Art and Science of Publishing in the Field of Criminology: Editors Meet Their Clients (SALON B)
80. SOLO: De-Institutionalization in the Post-Reagan Era (SALON C)
81. Crime as Text: Explorations in the Social Construction of Crime and Justice (PURDUE)
82. Should Women Be Imprisoned? (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
83. Dilemmas in Controlling Corporate Crimes (GREAT AMERICA I)
84. Neglected Offenders: The Elderly, Loners, and Crazies (ILLINOIS)
85. Crime Prevention and Environmental Design (IOWA)
86. Advances in Radical and Humanist Criminological Theory (SALON F)
87. Rape and Sexual Violence: Etiology and Ideology (GREAT AMERICA II)
88. International Perspectives on Delinquency (INDIANA)
89. Factors in Delinquent Behavior (MICHIGAN)
90. Drug Use Among Criminal Offenders (MICHIGAN STATE)
91. The Socio-Demography of Race, Gender and Crime (NORTHWESTERN)
92. Issues in Prediction and Selective Incapacitation (OHIO STATE)
93. The Powerful and Crime: Domestic and International Scene (MINNESOTA)
- 94A. SOLO: The Social Construction of Sexuality in Pornography and Prostitution (SALON G)
- 94B. Offenders Against the State: Sociology, Psychology and Cultural Perspectives (LINCOLNSHIRE I)

4:45-6:00 PANEL SESSIONS

95. SCREENING: Battering Women, Battering Central America (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
96. To Save or Punish: Juvenile Justice at the Crossroads (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
97. The New Enhanced UCR (SALON B)
98. Homicide Between Intimates (GREAT AMERICA I)
99. Political Economy of Crime Control (GREAT AMERICA II)
100. Causes of Crime: Theory, System, Definition and Research (ILLINOIS)
101. Issues in Analysis of Longitudinal Data on Delinquency and Drug Use (SALON C)
102. Minorities in Policing: Perceptions of Change in a Traditional Occupational Group (INDIANA)
103. Restitution in Juvenile Justice (IOWA)
104. Historical Approaches to Punishment (MICHIGAN)
105. Youth Gangs, The Urban Underclass, and Public Policy (MICHIGAN STATE)
106. Research on Crack: Patterns of Using and Dealing (NORTHWESTERN)
107. Juvenile Homicide: Issues and Responses (OHIO STATE)
108. DEBATE: Is Gun Ownership and Use a Defense Against Crime? (SALON E)
109. Perspectives on Australian Criminological Research (MINNESOTA)
110. Progressive Caucus: Criminology and Criminal Justice After Reagan (SALON F)

4:45-6:15 Reception: Ohio Council of Criminal Justice Educators (SALON G)

6:15-7:15 ASC Annual Business Meeting (SALON B)

6:30-8:00 Cocktail Hour - Cash Bar (SALON E)
Sponsored by the Division on International Criminology of ASC

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11

- 7:30-6:00 Registration (LEVEL SEVEN)
- 8:00-9:30 Journal of Quantitative Criminology Editorial Board Breakfast Meeting
(MIDWAY, 10TH FLOOR)
- 8:00-9:45 Division on International Criminology Business Meeting (SALON B)
- 8:30-5:00 Book Exhibit (SALONS A & D)
- 8:30-5:00 Professional Employment Service (SCOTTSDALE)

8:00-9:30 PANEL SESSIONS

111. International Association for the Study of Organized Crime Annual Meeting Organized Crime in Chicago (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
112. Youth Gang-Related Violence: The Chicago Response (GREAT AMERICA I)
113. Social Influences on Criminal and Court Behaviors (GREAT AMERICA II)
114. Adults Who Abuse Children and Children Who Abuse Adults (SALON C)
115. Improving Observational Studies of Police (INDIANA)
116. Legal Issues in Juvenile Justice (IOWA)
117. Substance Abuse: Delinquency and Treatment (MICHIGAN)
118. Women Abuse and the State (MICHIGAN STATE)
119. Panaceas, Politics, and Solutions to the Prison Crowding Problem (SALON F)
120. Parole Guidelines and Decision-Making (NORTHWESTERN)

9:30 Coffee Break (SALONS A & D)
Sponsored by Brooks/Cole Publishing Company

9:45-11:15 PANEL SESSIONS

121. SOLO: Assassins: Reflections on the Murder of Jesus De Galindez, 1956 (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
122. Abolition of the Death Penalty: The Law (SALON B)
123. Lethal and Nonlethal Assault and Robbery: How do Nonlethal Crimes Become Lethal? (GREAT AMERICA II)
124. Age and the Prediction of Deviance (SALON C)
125. The Use of Force (INDIANA)
126. Issues in the Institutionalization of Youth (IOWA)
127. Critical Criminologies in Europe and Canada (MICHIGAN)
128. Substance Control Strategies: U.S. and International Approaches (MICHIGAN STATE)
129. Juvenile Justice Reform: Issues and Perspectives (NORTHWESTERN)
130. Official Responses to Domestic Violence (SALON F)
131. Sentencing of the Disenfranchised (OHIO STATE)
132. The State, Organizational Crime, and Social Control (LOS ANGELES)
133. A Feminist Approach to Intimate Violence (MIAMI)
134. Criminalization, Political Activism and Strategies of State Repression in the 1980's (SALON G)
135. International Research in Crime and Criminal Justice (PURDUE)
136. New Directions in Sentencing (SALON H)
137. DEBATE: Is Legalization the Answer to America's Drug Problem? (SALON E)
138. Issues in Schooling and Delinquency (ILLINOIS)
139. Policing as Work (GREAT AMERICA I)
140. Routine Activities and Victimization (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
141. ROUNDTABLE: Jail and Prison Violence and Overcrowding (SALON I)
142. ROUNDTABLE: Research on American Indians and the Law (SALON I)
143. ROUNDTABLE: The Blur Between Victim and Offender in Crime Control Strategies (SALON I)
144. ROUNDTABLE: Shock Incarceration: Strengths and Limitations (SALON I)
145. ROUNDTABLE: Feminist Pedagogy (SALON I)
146. ROUNDTABLE: Concepts of Crime Opportunity: Approaches in Criminological and Tax Law Research (SALON I)
147. ROUNDTABLE: Internships: Problems and Prospects (SALON I)
148. ROUNDTABLE: Traditional and Innovative Perspectives on Crimes by and Against the State (SALON I)
149. ROUNDTABLE: Defending Civil Disobedients: Conscience Versus the Courts (SALON I)

10:00 ASC Site Selection Committee Meeting (MINNESOTA)

11:30-1:00 PANEL SESSIONS

150. Theory of Women's Crime (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
151. Issues in Defining Political Criminality (GREAT AMERICA II)
152. The Ideological Underpinnings of Rape Definitions (ILLINOIS)
153. Developments in Drug Testing by Hair Analysis (INDIANA)

154. Juvenile Delinquency and the Transformation into Long Term Adult Criminality (IOWA)
155. Juvenile Justice Research Agenda for the 90's (MICHIGAN)
156. Issues in Corrections: Views From the Left (MICHIGAN STATE)
157. Auditing, Evaluating, and Planning in the Bureau of Prisons (NORTHWESTERN)
158. Revolution, Crime, and Justice (OHIO STATE)
159. Current Issues in Sentencing Research (PURDUE)
160. Crime Beyond the Streets (WISCONSIN)
161. DEBATE: Is "Just Deserts" a Just Response to Crime? (SALON E)

1:15-2:45 PLENARY SESSION (SALON E)

Sellin-Glueck Award Presentation and Address

Maureen Cain, University of West Indies, Trinidad, and Cambridge University, England

Edwin H. Sutherland Award Presentation and Address

Ronald L. Akers, University of Florida

3:00-4:30 PANEL SESSIONS

162. Research in the Federal Bureau of Prisons (MICHIGAN STATE)
163. WORKSHOP: Chairing the Academic Department: Problems and Prospects (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
164. The Social Impacts of Corporate and Governmental Unlawfulness (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
165. Police Management Issues: Professionalism, Values, Organizational Size and Civil Liability (GREAT AMERICA II)
166. Innovative Approaches to Juvenile Delinquency and Juvenile Justice (GREAT AMERICA I)
167. Ideology, Terrorism, and the Global Political Economy (ILLINOIS)
168. Types of Delinquent Behavior (INDIANA)
169. Crime and Justice in Non-Western Cultures (IOWA)
170. Secondary Analysis of Criminal Justice Research: The 1988 Summer Research Fellowship Program (MICHIGAN)
171. Visual Pornography Influences (SALON B)
172. The Polemics of Capital Sentencing (NORTHWESTERN)
173. The Abuse of Children: Cause, Correlates and Possible Solutions (OHIO STATE)
174. Inmate Stress, Prison Stressors (PURDUE)
175. Drunk Driving: Theoretical Perspectives on State Control (WISCONSIN)
176. Public Perceptions of Crime, Criminals and Deviance (LOS ANGELES)
177. Realist Criminology (MIAMI)
178. DEBATE: Is the U.S. Criminal Justice System Racist? (SALON E)

4:45-6:00 PANEL SESSIONS

179. Gender, Class, Race, and Theories of Crime: Feminist Perspectives (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
180. Judicial Discretion in Charging, Adjudication and Sentencing (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
181. Violent Crime: Macro-Social, Cultural and Historical Factors (GREAT AMERICA I)
182. Police and the Construction of Crime (ILLINOIS)
183. Issues in Critical Criminology in Canada (INDIANA)
184. Controlling the Coercive Power of the Democratic State: Current Research (IOWA)
185. Comparative Studies in Delinquency (MICHIGAN)
186. Deterrence Doctrine: Controversy and Evidence (MICHIGAN STATE)
187. Adolescent Substance Use: Peer and Gender Factors (MINNESOTA)
188. Problems of Overcrowding in Jails and Prisons (NORTHWESTERN)
189. Working with the Illinois Sexual Assault Statute: "A Law for Victims" (OHIO STATE)
190. Structure, Culture, and Violence (PURDUE)
191. Restorative Justice: From Theory to Practice (WISCONSIN)
192. Fear of Crime and Responses to that Fear (LOS ANGELES)
193. Patterns of Drug Dealing (SALON B)
194. Refugees and the Sanctuary Movement: Dilemmas of Low Intensity Conflict (GREAT AMERICA II)

- 195. Abolishing the Insanity Defense in the United States (SALON C)
- 196. Chicago Women and Crime (SALON G)
- 197. Integrating Criminological Theories (SALON F)

- 4:45-6:00      British Home Office Tea - Sponsored by British Home Office, London (SALON H)
- 6:00-7:00      No Host Cocktail Hour (FOYER, GRAND BALLROOM, LEVEL SEVEN)
- 7:00-9:00      Banquet (GRAND BALLROOM, LEVEL SEVEN)
                   ASC Presidential Address
                   William J. Chambliss
                   George Washington University
- 9:00-Until      Tom Russell Band
                   Cash Bar

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12

- 9:00-2:00      Registration (LEVEL SEVEN)
- 9:00-Noon      Professional Employment Service (SCOTTSDALE)

9:45-11:15 PANEL SESSIONS

- 198. Cross-Cultural Trends in Delinquency Programming (LINCOLNSHIRE I)
- 199. Police and the Public (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
- 200. Collaborative Responses to Family and Intimate Violence (GREAT AMERICA I)
- 201. Punishment and Reform: Was Sentencing Ever Enough? Or Was it Always Too Much? (GREAT AMERICA II)
- 202. Delinquency and Ethnicity (ILLINOIS)
- 203. Ethnography and Drugs (INDIANA)
- 204. Urban Change, Policy and Crime: British and American Perspectives (IOWA)
- 205. The Dialectics of Crimes By and Against the State (MICHIGAN)
- 206. Theories of Crime Causation: Chaos, Birth Crisis, Personality and Destiny (MICHIGAN STATE)
- 207. State, Crime and Criminology in Australia (MINNESOTA)
- 208. Opinions About Punishment (NORTHWESTERN)
- 209. Theoretical Integrations and Delinquency (OHIO STATE)
- 210. Crime, Delinquency, and Justice: Development and Change in Non-Western States (PURDUE)
- 211. Women, Heroin and Cocaine Addiction: Treatment Perspectives (WISCONSIN)

11:30-1:00 PANEL SESSIONS

- 212. Selectivity in Victimization and Prosecution (LINCOLNSHIRE II)
- 213. The Dynamics of Social Control: Theory and Evidence (GREAT AMERICA II)
- 214. Crime Prevention and Fear of Crime (GREAT AMERICA I)
- 215. Politics and Repression in the Marion Prison System (ILLINOIS)
- 216. Issues in the Treatment of Female Inmates (INDIANA)
- 217. Theory, Publicity, and Ecology: Views on Homicide (IOWA)
- 218. Sentencing the Convicted (MICHIGAN)
- 219. Incident Level Data for Crime Fighting and Policy Analysis (MICHIGAN STATE)
- 220. Operationalizing and Measuring Delinquency (MINNESOTA)
- 221. Crime Causation and the Individual (NORTHWESTERN)
- 222. The Victim in Theory and Research (OHIO STATE)
- 223. Alternatives to Youthful Incarceration: An Assessment (PURDUE)
- 224. Exploring Delinquency (WISCONSIN)

1:15-2:45 PANEL SESSIONS

225. Symbolic Dimensions of the Crime Problem (GREAT AMERICA I)
226. Varieties of Crime and Justice: A Comparative View (GREAT AMERICA II)
227. Current Studies on Organized Crime (ILLINOIS)
228. Beyond Consciousness: Alternative Methods of Investigation (INDIANA)
229. Drug Treatment Issues in the 1980's (IOWA)
230. Perceptions of Crime and Justice (MICHIGAN)
231. Criminal Victimization (MICHIGAN STATE)
232. Situational Crime Prevention: Recent Research (MINNESOTA)
233. Public Perceptions of Crime, Criminals, and Criminal Justice (NORTHWESTERN)
234. Correlates of Adult Arrest (OHIO STATE)
235. Issues in Human Resource Management: Stress, Performance, Injuries (PURDUE)
236. Prosecuting and Defending the Accused (WISCONSIN)
237. Issues in Sentencing (LINCOLNSHIRE II)