

ASC Historical Annual Meeting Attendance Figures

The following are the historical annual meeting attendance figures and meeting locations for the American Society of Criminology. It is obviously incomplete, as many records have been lost. In some instances there are irreconcilable discrepancies from one historical report to another, and in some years, round numbers were reported rather than actual counts. This is, however, the best we have, and it at least gives us some sense of the growth ASC has experienced through the years.

1941 – 8	(Berkeley, CA)
1976 – 475	(Tucson, AZ)
1977 – 634	(Atlanta, GA)
1992 – 1,600	(New Orleans, LA)
1997 – 2,250	(San Diego, CA)
1998 – 2,769	(Washington, DC)
1999 – 2,500	(Toronto, Canada)
2000 – 2,802	(San Francisco, CA)
2001 – 2,240	(Atlanta, GA)
2002 – 2,500	(Chicago, IL)
2004 – 2,377	(Nashville, TN)
2007 – 2,557	(Atlanta, GA)
2008 – 2,430	(St. Louis, MO)
2009 – 2,865	(Philadelphia, PA)
2010 – 3,162	(San Francisco, CA)
2011 – 3,266	(Washington, DC)
2012 – 3,474	(Chicago, IL)
2013 – 3,217	(Atlanta, GA)
2014 – 3,767	(San Francisco, CA)
2015 – 4,015	(Washington, DC)
2016 – 4,612	(New Orleans, LA)
2017 – 4,112	(Philadelphia, PA)
2018 – 3,681	(Atlanta, GA)
2019 – 4,123	(San Francisco)

2020 – no meeting

2021 – 2,326 (Chicago, IL)

2022 – 3,268 (Atlanta, GA)

2023 – 4,097 (Philadelphia, PA)