

CRIME AND JUSTICE RESEARCH ALLIANCE EXPERT DIRECTORY APPLICATION
ASC POLICY COMMITTEE
ascpolicycommittee@gmail.com

A Crime and Justice Research Alliance (CJRA) expert is current member of American Society of Criminology (ASC) or Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (ACJS) who has demonstrated sufficient depth of knowledge in a particular subject area as certified by a committee of one of the two organizations. CJRA experts are expected to summarize the current research in a particular subject matter and provide policy-related insight inclusive of impacts, implications, and recommendations based upon their own subject matter and policy analysis expertise. CJRA experts speak for themselves as individuals and should not represent their views as being those of the American Society of Criminology or the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences.

Statement of Professional Responsibility:

As a CJRA expert, you will be expected to engage with the media on an as needed basis. The expectation is that you are relying on relevant academic expertise and empirical evidence to support any claims. You should only take CJRA requests within your area(s) of expertise. You do not need to take every request, but you are expected to reply in a timely manner affirming or declining the opportunity to respond. Although you will be speaking for yourself, and not either organization, you are representing the profession and agree to adhere to these expectations of professional responsibility.

Declarations

I have read the statement of professional responsibility and agree to adhere to the expectations stated therein.
