

Assistant Professor - Criminal Justice

The Citadel, The Military College of South Carolina, is seeking a tenure-track Assistant Professor, with employment beginning August 2025. The area of specialization is open. Candidates must be willing to teach courses in our undergraduate and graduate programs. A Ph.D. from an accredited institution is required; a JD is not an appropriate degree for this position. ABD candidates may be considered if degree completion is expected prior to August 1, 2025.

Located in beautiful Charleston, SC, The Citadel is a fully accredited, public, comprehensive, co- educational college with a student body of 2,300 undergraduate and 1,000 evening/online and graduate students. A normal teaching load is twelve hours per week with small class sizes.

The Citadel supports faculty scholarship and professional development. Internal funding is available for research, development, and travel. Salary and fringe benefits are competitive, and other benefits include convenient parking, access to the Citadel Beach Club located on the Isle of Palms, and the Swain Boating Center located on campus.

Applications will be considered until the position is filled. In addition to completing the on-line application, candidates are asked to upload the following supporting documents:

1. Letter of interest addressing qualifications listed above
2. Curriculum vita
3. Teaching philosophy
4. Sample course syllabi and course evaluations
5. Sample of research and writing
6. Official graduate transcripts
7. Contact information for three professional references

Department representatives will be available at the American Society of Criminology conference in San Francisco (November 13 - 16).
