

Steven J. Green School of International and Public Affairs Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice

Florida International University is a top public university that drives talent and innovation in Miami and globally. Very high research (R1) activity and social mobility come together at FIU to uplift and accelerate learner success in a global city by focusing on the environment, health, innovation, and justice. Today, FIU has two campuses and multiple centers. FIU serves a diverse student body of more than 56,000 and 290,000 Panther alumni. U.S. News and World Report places dozens of FIU programs among the best in the nation, including international business, at No. 2. Washington Monthly Magazine ranks FIU among the top 20 public universities contributing to the public good.

Assistant/Associate Professor Position

The Steven J. Green School of International and Public Affairs, a full member of the Association of Professional Schools of International Affairs (APSIA), is seeking applicants for an assistant/associate tenure track professor position. The position will be housed in the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice. The start date is August 2025. A Ph.D. is required, although exceptional ABD candidates will also be considered. Applicants are expected to have a strong publication record and the potential for securing external funding. All specialization areas will be considered. The responsibilities include engaging in research publications, writing grant proposals, teaching a 2/2 load, and mentoring and supervising doctoral students. Salary is nationally competitive and commensurate with experience. The Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice currently has 16 full-time faculty members, enrolls about 2,000 majors, and offers Bachelor of Science degrees in Crime Science and Criminal Justice, a Master of Science degree in Criminal Justice, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree in International Crime and Justice.

Qualified candidates are encouraged to apply to Job Opening ID 533186 at <https://facultycareers.fiu.edu/> and attach a (1) letter of application, (2) curriculum vitae, and (3) the names, titles, and email addresses of three references. Individuals identified as references will be contacted directly by FIU. Candidates should upload all application materials as individual attachments. Applications and required materials should be received by December 31, 2024, for full consideration. The review will continue until the position is filled. If you have any questions, please contact Professor Tim Goddard, Search Committee Chair, at tgoddard.fiu.edu.

FIU is a member of the State University System of Florida and an Equal Opportunity, Equal Access Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will be considered for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.