

The College of Criminology and Criminal Justice at Florida State University is a vibrant academic community which fosters an environment of collaborative research and intellectual stimulation among its faculty and students. The College invites applications for a tenure-track associate or full professor position to begin Fall 2027. The areas of specialization are open. Applicants must have demonstrated excellence in research and teaching. Candidates should have a Ph.D. in Criminology and Criminal Justice or a related field (such as sociology, psychology, or public policy). A Juris Doctorate alone is not sufficient for consideration. Review of applications will begin on September 28, 2026, and will continue until the position is filled.

Interested persons should complete an application and submit a cover letter, statements on research and teaching, and a curriculum vitae through FSU's employment site <http://jobs.fsu.edu/> (job ID 63329). In addition, they should arrange for three letters of recommendation to be sent to CCCJ-SearchCommittee@fsu.edu with the subject line "Letter of Recommendation for [applicant]." Any questions regarding the position may be directed to search committee chair Sonja Siennick at ssiennick@fsu.edu. For further information about the College, please visit our website at <https://criminology.fsu.edu/>. Florida State University is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

If qualified and interested in a specific faculty job opening as advertised, apply to Florida State University at <https://jobs.fsu.edu/>. If you are a current FSU employee, apply via myFSU > Self Service. Applicants are required to complete the online application with all applicable information. Applications must include education details even if attaching a vita.
