

Lebanon Valley College

Position Opening: Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice

The Lebanon Valley College Department of Social Sciences invites applications for the position of assistant professor of Criminal Justice. This is a full-time, nine-month, tenure-track position, beginning in August 2025. Responsibilities include teaching a broad variety of undergraduate courses in criminal justice and criminology. Candidates should have an excellent record of teaching, a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or a closely related field (ABD's will be considered but the doctorate must be completed before starting date), a demonstrated ability to teach at the undergraduate level, and the ability to work with diverse populations on a campus committed to inclusive excellence. Additional responsibilities include maintaining regular office hours, attending faculty and department meetings, advising students and assisting in the recruiting and retention of students.

Interested applicants should submit; (1) cover letter addressing teaching experience, philosophy, and ability to meet job requirements (2) curriculum vitae, (3) Statement of Inclusive Excellence - a one-page diversity, equity, and inclusion statement addressing personal experience with teaching, advising, or service intended to reduce barriers and contribute to the development of an inclusive community, and (4) three professional references with current contact information. Please submit all materials through Recruitment. Review of candidate materials will begin late November and continue until the position is filled.

Lebanon Valley College is committed to excellence through its employment practices and welcomes applicants with exceptional qualifications, particularly those with demonstrable commitments to a more inclusive society and world. The College is committed to recruiting and supporting a diverse student body, faculty and staff and strives to promote a culture of inclusiveness, respect, communication, and understanding. The College strongly encourages applications from historically underrepresented populations. Visit here to learn more about our commitment to Inclusive Excellence.