University of Scranton

Assistant Professor, Criminal Justice, Cybersecurity, and Sociology

Non-Discrimination Statement
The University is committed to providing an educational, residential, and working environment that is free from harassment and discrimination. Members of the University community, applicants for employment or admissions, guests and visitors have the right to be free from harassment or discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, ancestry, gender, sex, pregnancy and related conditions, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, disability, genetic information, national origin, ethnicity, family responsibilities, marital status, veteran or military status, citizenship status, or any other status protected by applicable law.
Sexual harassment, including sexual violence, is a form of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. The University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational, extracurricular, athletic, or other programs or in the context of employment.

The University will promptly address reports of discrimination under the University https://www.scranton.edu/equity-diversity/docs/nondiscrimination-antiharassment-policy.pdf or the https://www.scranton.edu/equity-diversity/docs/sh-sm-policy.pdf, Anyone who has questions about the above referenced policies, or wishes to report a possible violation of one of the policies should contact:

Elizabeth M. Garcia
Title IX Coordinator
The Office of Equity and Diversity
Institute of Molecular Biology & Medicine, Suite 315
%20elizabeth.garcia2@scranton.edu
(570) 941-6645
https://www.scranton.edu/equity-diversity/

University Mission
The University is a Catholic and Jesuit University animated by the spiritual vision and the tradition of excellence characteristic of the Society of Jesus and those who share in its way of proceeding. All candidates must indicate how they would help communicate and support the Catholic and Jesuit identity and mission of the University. The University's mission statement and a description of the history and concepts of the Ignatian teaching philosophy may be found at https://www.scranton.edu/about/jesuit-tradition/index.shtml.

Diversity & Inclusion
The University of Scranton embraces diversity and inclusion through its mission, Jesuit identity, strategic plans, community outreach programs, and numerous diversity programs. The University of Scranton is an Equal Opportunity employer and actively solicits applications from diverse candidates. Please see our website at https://www.scranton.edu/equity-diversity/ for our full non-discrimination statement.

All applicants are required to provide a statement that indicates their commitment to diversity and inclusion and how this informs their pedagogy.

Department

Sociology/CJ & Criminology

Job Purpose:

The University of Scranton Department of Criminal Justice, Cybersecurity, and Sociology invites applications for a tenure track assistant professor in Cybercrime or Cybersecurity beginning Fall 2025.

Essential Duties:

Must demonstrate experience or potential in teaching undergraduate and/or graduate courses in some or all of the following: digital forensic, network cybersecurity, cyber risk management, cyber intelligence, Artificial Intelligence in law enforcement, and programming language, in varying modalities (in-person, online, and/or hybrid) and address their plan to contribute to the Cybersecurity curriculum.

Additional Skills Required:

Minimum Education Requirements:

A PhD or other terminal degree in related fields. ABD will be considered. A candidate will have one year to complete the terminal degree and will hold the title of Instructor while ABD .

Preferred Education:

Minimum Job Experience Requirements:

Must provide evidence of Cybersecurity in existing research program. Demonstrated experience or potential in teaching cybersecurity related subjects.

Preferred Qualifications:

Clear plan for developing a scholarly agenda in Cybersecurity at The University of Scranton.

Expertise, experience and active research in Cybersecurity, Cybercrime Investigation, Cryptocurrency Investigation, and AI & Robotics in Law Enforcement.

Ability to develop classes in existing and emerging subfields of cybersecurity, programming, AI & robotics, drone, deepfake detection, and/or machine learning.

Preferred a minimum of four (4) years' experience in cybersecurity, digital forensics field and/or law enforcement training.

Full Time/Part Time:

Full-Time

Annual Schedule:

9

Rank:

Assistant Professor

Tenure:

Tenure Track

Special Instructions to Applicants:

Review of applications will begin immediately. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Please submit a CV, cover letter, and list of references. For more information contact Search Committee Chair, Dr. Michael Jenkins, at Michael.jenkins@scranton.edu.

Posting Number:

F00520P

To apply, visit https://apptrkr.com/5738829