

Short Ad: Criminal Justice One-Year Non-Tenure-Track position

The Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice at the University of South Alabama invites applications for a one-year (9-month), non-tenure-track Visiting Professor position in Criminal Justice to begin August 14, 2025. Applicants should possess an earned doctoral degree in Criminal Justice, Criminology, or a related field, but ABDs near completion will be considered. Any selected candidate should have degree in hand before the start date of the position. Candidates should be able to teach courses across the criminal justice curriculum, including in the core areas of corrections, courts, policing, and criminology, and also offer upper-level electives and topical courses.

For more information, see the following link:

<https://www.southalabama.edu/departments/academicaffairs/resources/academicaffairspostings/cj-new-asstprofinstruction.pdf>

Applications received by Friday, May 16, 2025, will receive full consideration. The search committee will decide whether to consider applications received after that date. The position remains open until filled.

The University of South Alabama is an EO/AA Employer-Minorities/Females/Veterans/Disabilities/Sexual Orientation/Gender Identity.