

The University of Southern Indiana is accepting applications for Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice.

Appointment will begin Fall 2025.

Duties/Responsibilities

The Assistant Professor will be expected to teach face-to-face and online, at both the undergraduate and graduate level, maintain an active research agenda culminating in peer-reviewed publications, and engage in professional and university service activities.

Required Knowledge and Skills

Applicants must hold or be nearing completion (ABD) of a doctoral degree in Criminal Justice, Criminology, Sociology or related field. Applicants in the process of finishing their degree will be considered at the rank of Instructor if the degree will be conferred by the end of their first year of employment. If employment starts in August 2025, terminal degree must be completed by the end of July 2026.

We are seeking candidates whose research and teaching specializations lies in policing.

Application Process

To learn more about the position and to apply, please visit <http://careers.usi.edu/cw/en-us/job/493563?!ApplicationSubSourceID=>

EEO Statement

The University of Southern Indiana is an EEO/AA employer. All individuals including minorities, women, individuals with disabilities and veterans are encouraged to apply.